Rules of the Game

White Board Challenges

œ Challenges will normally have a timer set to them or be won by the first group to finish. Teams who take more time, if there is a time set, will be disqualified for that challenge. Points will go to the team first done and to ring the bell or with the BEST answer written on their white board, which may come down to the detail of spelling and punctuation in the answer as the deciding factor.

Rules of the Game

cont...

Jingle Bells

- œ If you know the answer, ring the bell.
- œ If it seems that bells were rung at the exact same time, you will play rock, paper, scissors for the chance to answer: Best out of 1.
- œ If you get it right, your team gets 1 point.
- œ If you get it wrong, another team may jump for the bell and a chance to win 1 point. You must wait at least 10 seconds or until another team has attempted the answer before hitting the bell again.

Ways a Team can Lose Points

- ⌘ Being loud or obnoxious
- ⌘ Being off task or having members not involved
- ⌘ If you hit a bell so hard that it detaches and goes flying across the room
- ⌘ Not keeping your hands to yourself
- ⌘ Using the white board for anything not assigned
- ⌘ Taking game banter personally
- ⌘ Not cleaning up after themselves
- ⌘ Name calling, offending
